October 2017 newsletter

What's on

Photo day: Back by popular demand we have Love Nursery Photography with us on Wednesday 1st November.

If your child attends nursery on that day we will automatically assume you would like their photos taken (no charge for photos being taken) unless you tell us otherwise. If your child does not attend on that day please feel free to come in throughout the day for a chance to have some snaps of your little one, siblings welcome.

If you would rather your child did not have photos taken please let your room staff know.

Half term and inset days:

October half term is looming (how is it October already!!)

Quick reminder that 18th, 19th and 20th October are inset days therefore those children who are NEF funded do not have funding for that day and will therefore not be attending unless you have booked in as extra.

If you would like to book your child in extra please do get in touch.

WELCOME TO OUR NEW CHILDREN, Nathaniel

Wanted

We have some exciting plans for both our gardens and have decided we need some help making our plans reality therefore we have 2 job opportunities....

Carpenter: To make and fit a fence in our baby and toddler garden to secure a safe play area for the babies.

Odd jobs person: To help with odd jobs here and there not only in the garden but throughout the nursery.

Both opportunities will be paid.

Please contact Janet if you are interested or would like more information.

Christmas.....

As someone who hasn't started (in fact I winced at it) my Christmas shopping I know it might be verging on too early to talk about Christmas.....But here goes.

As in previous years we are submitting pictures done by your children to Mini Me Christmas Cards to turn them in to.....you guessed it....Christmas cards! The pictures have to be sent by the end of October so please do not be concerned if your child starts talking about jingle bells etc, they have not gone mad..... we have!

In other Christmas news.....

We are in the process of trying to lock down a date for our children's Christmas party!! Keep your eyes peeled for posters and future news letters.
